2022 Youth and Masters Pan Am
Championships 31 May- 05 June 2022 – Halifax CAN

Version 1.0 (7 February 2022)

TO ALL World Archery Americas Member Associations

Dear President,

As Chair of the Local Organising Committee (LOC) of the 2022 Youth and Masters Pan Am Championships to be held in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada May 31-June 5, 2022, I would like to invite you all to be part of one of the most important archery events to take place in the Americas/Canada in 2022.

Halifax, the largest urban area in Atlantic Canada, is the capital of the province of Nova Scotia. It sits in the center of Nova Scotia's rugged and beautiful east coast and is historic seaport that looks out over one of the world's largest natural harbors.

We are known for our stunning waterfront boardwalk that follows the water's edge alongside the world's second largest ice-free harbour. It is lined with unique shops, restaurants, cafes, and entertainment. An important maritime outpost, the Halifax Citadel sits majestically set upon an expansive hill overlooking the city and is a perfectly preserved homage to the centuries of military history.

Nova Scotia takes great pride in preserving what makes our varied historic cultures unique and fascinating. The traditions of our Mi'kmaq, Acadian, African Nova Scotian and Gaelic influences live strong in our everyday. Throughout your travels in Nova Scotia, learn and experience how the deep roots of our founders continue to shape our present and future.

Come and discover the natural beauty of our province, people and culture!

Sincerely yours,

Melanie Lefler

Organizing Committee Chair
